

Pintando en Familia

with Angelo Romano and Friends

Kids stir crazy, Adults at their wits end???
 A family that paints together ...

An ideal activity for a Sunday afternoon. All ages welcome -- grandparents, parents, children, god children. Come and bring your favorite youngster (or oldster)!

Bring an old shoe, an empty carton, bleach jug, old cutting board -- anything you were ready to throw out

And go home with a beautiful work of art.
